

Feb. 14, 2008

Copyright © Las Vegas Review-Journal

THE R-J GOES TO A PARTY

DOROTHY HUFFEY

Fundraiser dinner: A dinner on Friday to benefit the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation was at Cafe Bleu at Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts.

Task force leaders Charli and Dave Carter, and Kelly and Sean Connery, were joined by Teri and John Daly, and Dekka Knutson in chairing the dinner to raise awareness and funds for children with brain tumors.

The dinner promoted their upcoming Las Vegas Ride for Kids fundraiser, where motorcycle riders are encouraged to sign up sponsors and pledges for the group. The Las Vegas motorcycle ride to Red Rock Canyon and other points concludes with an awards presentation and lunch, which is similar to other rides that take place across the United States.

The evening began with a reception and silent auction that attracted guests Peggy Sanders, Kay and Allen Browne, Theresa and Michael Minden, Linda Smith, Deb Harris, and Virginia and Mark Martino to bid on 16 packages.

When guests were seated for a dinner by chef Carlos Fernandez, a live auction took place for Cordon Bleu's executive chef Heinz Lauer to cook dinner at a private home. The package sold twice for $6,500 each to Marlene and Andy Wheeler and to Larry Carter.

More guests attending were Bridget and Jeff Williams, Linda and Tony Bonnici, Tami Belt, Kim McLain and son, Joshua.

A Ride Around the World Dinner to benefit the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation is attended by the Las Vegas task force leaders Charli Carter, from left, Peggy Sanders and Dave Carter. The Carter's own Carter Powersports, Las Vegas which sponsors the Las Vegas Ride for Kids. This event also benefits the foundation.

John and Teri Daly, dinner chairs, attend the Ride Around the World Dinner party at Cafe Bleu, Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts

Find this article at: <http://www.lvrj.com/living/15626347.html>